

ANRS Satellite Symposium

RAI – Amsterdam - Thursday 26 July 2018 - 18:30 – 20:30 - Hall 11A

How Far are We from HIV Remission?

Program

18:30 Welcome
François Dabis, Director of the ANRS

Chairs

Sharon Lewin, Doherty Institute, University of Melbourne, Melbourne, Australia

Christine Rouzioux, Hôpital Necker, Université Paris Descartes, Paris, France

Lessons from the VISCONTI Research Program

18:35 An Update on Post-Treatment Controllers in France and Worldwide
Laurent Hocqueloux, Centre Hospitalier Régional d'Orléans-La Source, Orléans, France

18:50 Insights on Mechanisms of Post-Treatment Control
Asier Saéz-Cirion, Institut Pasteur, Paris, France

19:05 Discussion

Lessons from Research Interventions Aiming at HIV Remission

19:10 Very early ART Initiation during "Hyperacute" HIV Infection
Timothy Henrich, University of California at San Francisco, UCSF, San Francisco, United States

19:25 Stem-Cell Transplantation: ICISTEM
Monique Nijhuis, University Medical Center, Utrecht, The Netherlands

19:40 Interventions with broadly Neutralizing Antibodies (bNAbs)
Michel Nussenzweig, Rockefeller University, New York City, United States

19:55 HIV Remission Research: Expectations and Questioning
Richard Jefferys, Treatment Action Group, TAG, New York City, United States

20:10 Discussion

20:25 Concluding Remarks
Françoise Barré-Sinoussi, Institut Pasteur, Paris, France